Gary and Beth:

The manifest template will need to be corrected. It lists D007, D008, D018, D020. We need to come to agreement prior to shipment.

Beth:

The following codes are what I have for this wastestream.

| Container | Classification | RCRA Codes                | RCRA Codes Due to Matrix Interference |
|-----------|----------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|
|           |                |                           |                                       |
| VB25141   | Hazardous      | D023, D024, D025,D026 | D020, D032                            |
| VB281842  | Hazardous      | D023, D026                | D020, D032                            |

Are there other boxes that we have included in the profile for which we add additional codes. Also, I will not be reviewing the totals data for land ban requirements and will assume that you have done this for me and it is correct. Too much for me to double check at this time.

Thanks
